

CERTIFICATE OF GUARANTEE

At Service Today, we are confident in the quality of our repairs and committed to the satisfaction of our customers. We certify the repairs we have made to be free of defects in workmanship and warranted for life. If a defect in workmanship is discovered, we will repair or replace the parts and materials. We are able to take this unusual stance because of the old-fashioned craftsmanship, workmanship, and pride we put into every job we perform. This warranty excludes problems arising from pre-existing or unrelated conditions to the work we performed.

Our written guarantee means that we stand behind all our Plumbing, Heating, Cooling, Electrical, Drain Cleaning and Water Proofing Services. All the parts and products we use, our expert workmanship and our staff's professionalism.

We use the best products available in the market. We provide ongoing training and development for all our Service Experts, keeping them up to date with new market developments. This means you get the most knowledgeable Service Expert in the business with the best value products available.

Kind Regards
Service Today